

MELISHA ROSS

EMOTIONS OF A WOMAN; A Collection of Poetic Expressions.

It is a theory that women's minds are very complex. This author believes differently. Like their counter the male; women love, they suffer loss, have self-esteem issues, and are always on the path to find what truly makes them happy. My belief is; the only thing that separates the two, are the way they process the same thoughts.

The creator of this book wants to take you on a journey. This journey is filled with love, heartache, finding peace, suffering, loss, acknowledging their beauty, realizing the strength within, and finding true self.
